April 16th - April 20th Hunter Safety with Martin Hicks

The Wyoming Hunter's Education Course is approved by Wyoming Game and Fish Department, the state agency responsible for the administration of the Wyoming Hunter Education Card. Wyoming State Law says any person born on or after January 1, 1966, must complete a hunter Safety Course before being eligible to obtain a hunting license.

This course will teach hunters to be: Safe (by following all firearm and hunting safety rules) Responsible (about hunting, wildlife, conservation, and hunting laws), knowledgeable (by knowing and demonstrating acceptable behavior and attitudes while hunting), and involved (in joining and participating in hunting and conservation organizations).

This class will be held in the new WHS Outreach Building (The last building on the left as you are going toward the football field on 12th street. There is a EWC big metal sign on the end of the building). It will be Monday-Friday evenings from 5:00-8:00 pm. After successful completion of the course, all students will need to complete the Hunter Safety "Field Day" on April 21st. To register for this course you will need to go online to the Wyoming Game and Fish website under Education. This classroom portion is free however there is a $5.00 fee to receive your card.
